Open-Ended Responses

1. In what ways did your instructor make learning possible for you during the Fall 2024 semester?

Comments
Caleb is the best TA I have ever had. He clearly has a very firm grasp on subject material and is able to uniquely explain it in a way that actually makes sense. Overall, I would give him a 10/10.
Veyr interactive with class members
he was very understanding to people's questions and walked through problems.
He worked with us instead of lecturing at us.
Best TA. Get this man a teaching job! Everyone loves Caleb he's super kind and caring for all students. Explains concepts well and frequently makes himself available to help outside of class.
Answered questions and went deeper into material if needed.
Caleb provided extensive time in class to instruct students with materials for course success and was available to answer any/all questions that arose.
he went through practice problems step by step
He was a really good teacher. I definitely recommend going to his recitations to reinforce what you learn. He made things easier to understand, and would explain it very nicely.
Detailed explanations of problems and frequently encourage questions and participation.

2. Which aspects of this course should be kept for future times this course is taught?

Comments
I think every aspect from his recitation should be implemented in the future. His recitations and office hours are the main reason for my success.
Participation with practice questions
Collaborative work
Content provided by professor is adequate.
time to ask questions
All
his powerpoints were very useful
Just the same thing he has been doing.
The practice problems.
